

Music Must Know List

Group Composition

Once you have completed this topic you should use the traffic light system to self-assess your understanding of the content at three points in your revision. Colour the boxes:

Green- I feel confident with this and will need a quick review before I am assessed

Amber- I feel less confident and need to spend more time with revision in this area

Red- I have no confidence with this and need dedicated revision time in this specific area

MUST KNOW	Review dates
I know what/where the Renaissance period is in the western music timeline
I know what musical instruments are used in the Renaissance period
I know what DR T SMITH means
I understand that the musical elements (DR T SMITH) are used to describe pieces in the Renaissance period
I understand how to compare and contrast pieces of music in the Renaissance period
I understand what the numbers mean by every finger on your hand in regard to playing the keyboard
I know how to identify notes on a keyboard including flats and sharps
I can identify notes of the treble clef (notes on the lines and in the space)
I understand what the pulse is in a piece of music
I have an understanding of what a dotted crotchet is and how it is created
I know how to clap on the beat and on the off beat
I understand the context of Henry VIII
I understand what a fanfare is and what it used for
I know what family of instruments would be used for a fanfare
I know the key characteristics needed for a fanfare
I understand how to put together a fanfare and a marching rhythm
I understand what a Leitmotif is and how it can be used in a fanfare to represent Royalty
I can play my fanfare and marching rhythm in pairs with secure timing and accuracy			