

Skills

Year 13

"Are you Fit for FEET?"

- ✓ Learn how to reflect on skills on skills from Year 12 and successfully select techniques for development
- ✓ Learn how to independently select and respond to a theme
- ✓ Learn how to develop own ideas
- ✓ Learn how to experiment and take risks in own work
- ✓ Learn how to produce a body of research
- ✓ Learn how to produce a personal and meaningful outcome or series of outcomes
- ✓ Learn how to develop own design style or 'handwriting'
- ✓ Learn how to evaluate own successes and build on areas for development

Year 12

"Introduction to A-Level Mindset"

- ✓ Learn a variety of textile techniques
- ✓ Learn how to select and manipulate materials
- ✓ Learn how to use computer aided design
- ✓ Learn how to use textile workshop equipment safely
- ✓ Learn how to print and use own fabrics
- ✓ Know how to develop a colour palette and work with colour
- ✓ Learn how to analyse the work of artists and designers
- ✓ Learn how to respond to the work of artists and designers in an innovative way
- ✓ Learn how to plan and write a project essay

Knowledge

Externally Set Assignment Assessment Objective: Presenting Ideas

Planning and producing a personal and meaningful response to preparatory work

Future
Education,
Employment
& Training

Externally Set Assignment Assessment Objective: Refining Ideas

Selecting and experimenting with appropriate processes, taking risks and developing ideas towards a product or collection

Externally Set Assignment Assessment Objective: Recording Ideas

Using drawings and annotations to observe and reflect

Externally Set Assignment Assessment Objective: Developing Ideas

Research and respond to the work of artists and designers

Reflection and Exam Project Starting Point

Exam board release themes and pupils explore and decide on their selection

Coursework Assessment Objective: Presenting Ideas

Planning and producing a personal and meaningful response to preparatory work

Year
13

Coursework Assessment Objective: Refining Ideas

Selecting and experimenting with appropriate processes, taking risks and developing ideas towards a product or collection

Coursework Assessment Objective: Recording Ideas

Using drawings and annotations to observe and reflect

Coursework Assessment Objective: Developing Ideas

Research and respond to the work of artists and designers

Architecture Project Outcome

Learn to produce a personal and meaningful response

Architecture Project

Learn to independently select and develop skills and techniques in response to theme

Draping Workshops

Producing a basic block and manipulating to form an outcome

Year
12

Natural Forms Skills Workshops

Learn a variety of textile skills and processes in response to a theme