New Head Students for 2026-27

We are proud to announce our new head students for 2026-27, Peggy-May and Jan-Williem.

Responsibilities include:

- Lead the Head Student Team
- Student voice at Governor meetings (they attend different ones but they haven't been allocated yet)
- Lead the organisation of the Halloween and Valentines Disco
- Represent the school at open evenings and induction events

Peggy-May is our Head girl. She has shown a passion and strong commitment to supporting younger pupils, ensuring that pupil voice continues to shape and strengthen our school community. Her positive, can-do attitude has truly shone through, making her a fantastic role model for others.

Jan-Willem has demonstrated outstanding leadership and a strong commitment to maintaining high standards. He consistently led by example, showing reliability, maturity, and the ability to motivate others. His selection as Head Boy reflects his ability to represent the student body with confidence, support his peers, and uphold the values and expectations of the school.

Yr11 shirt signing

This week marked the final full week of school for our wonderful Year 11s, which the pupils celebrated at their shirt signing on Thursday 11th June. Year 11 pupils, teachers and tutors gathered to mark this occasion and the beginning of the leaving celebrations for this exceptional year group. The year group have gone from strength to strength and this did not stop for the shirt signing, where many added a creative feather to their caps to show off some outstanding leaver shirt designs. The celebrations will continue on the 6th of July for the End of Year Celebration Assembly and the Year 11 Prom.

Well done Year 11.
